(c) Government's reaction, thereto?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRI ARJUN SINGH): (a) The Sahitya Academy, an autonomous organisation, have stated that opinions on literary matters differ and that there are reports in the newspapers, both in favour and against the Urdu Award.

(b) The Sahitya Academy Awards are declared following the rules and procedure governing the Sahitya Academy Awards. The procedure is outlined in the Statement. (See below)

(c) The Government does not interfere in the selection procedures of the Sahitya Academy for its Awards as it is an autonomous organisation.

Statement

The procedure followed for selecting a book for the Sahitya Academy Award is as follows:

An expert is requested to prepare a ground list of books published during the proceeding three years that are worthy of consideration. The Literary Associations recognised in the language are also requested to furnish a ground list of books published during the period. In the first round, the ground lists received are collated and sent to 25 advisers in the Preliminary Panel for recommending five books each from the ground list or of their own. In the second round recommendations received from these advisers are collated and referred back to the same advisers in the preliminary Panel with the request to recommend only one title each now. Copies of the books are procured as per the recommendations made by the preliminary Panel advisers and are sent to the three readers in the final panel (including the Convener) for reading them and giving their order of preferences to each book. The order of preferences received from the three final panel readers are placed before the Executive Board of the Akademi which declares the Award after considering the same.
